*“Stand Your Ground . . .
If They Mean to Have a War,
Let It Begin Here.”*

Capt. John Parker

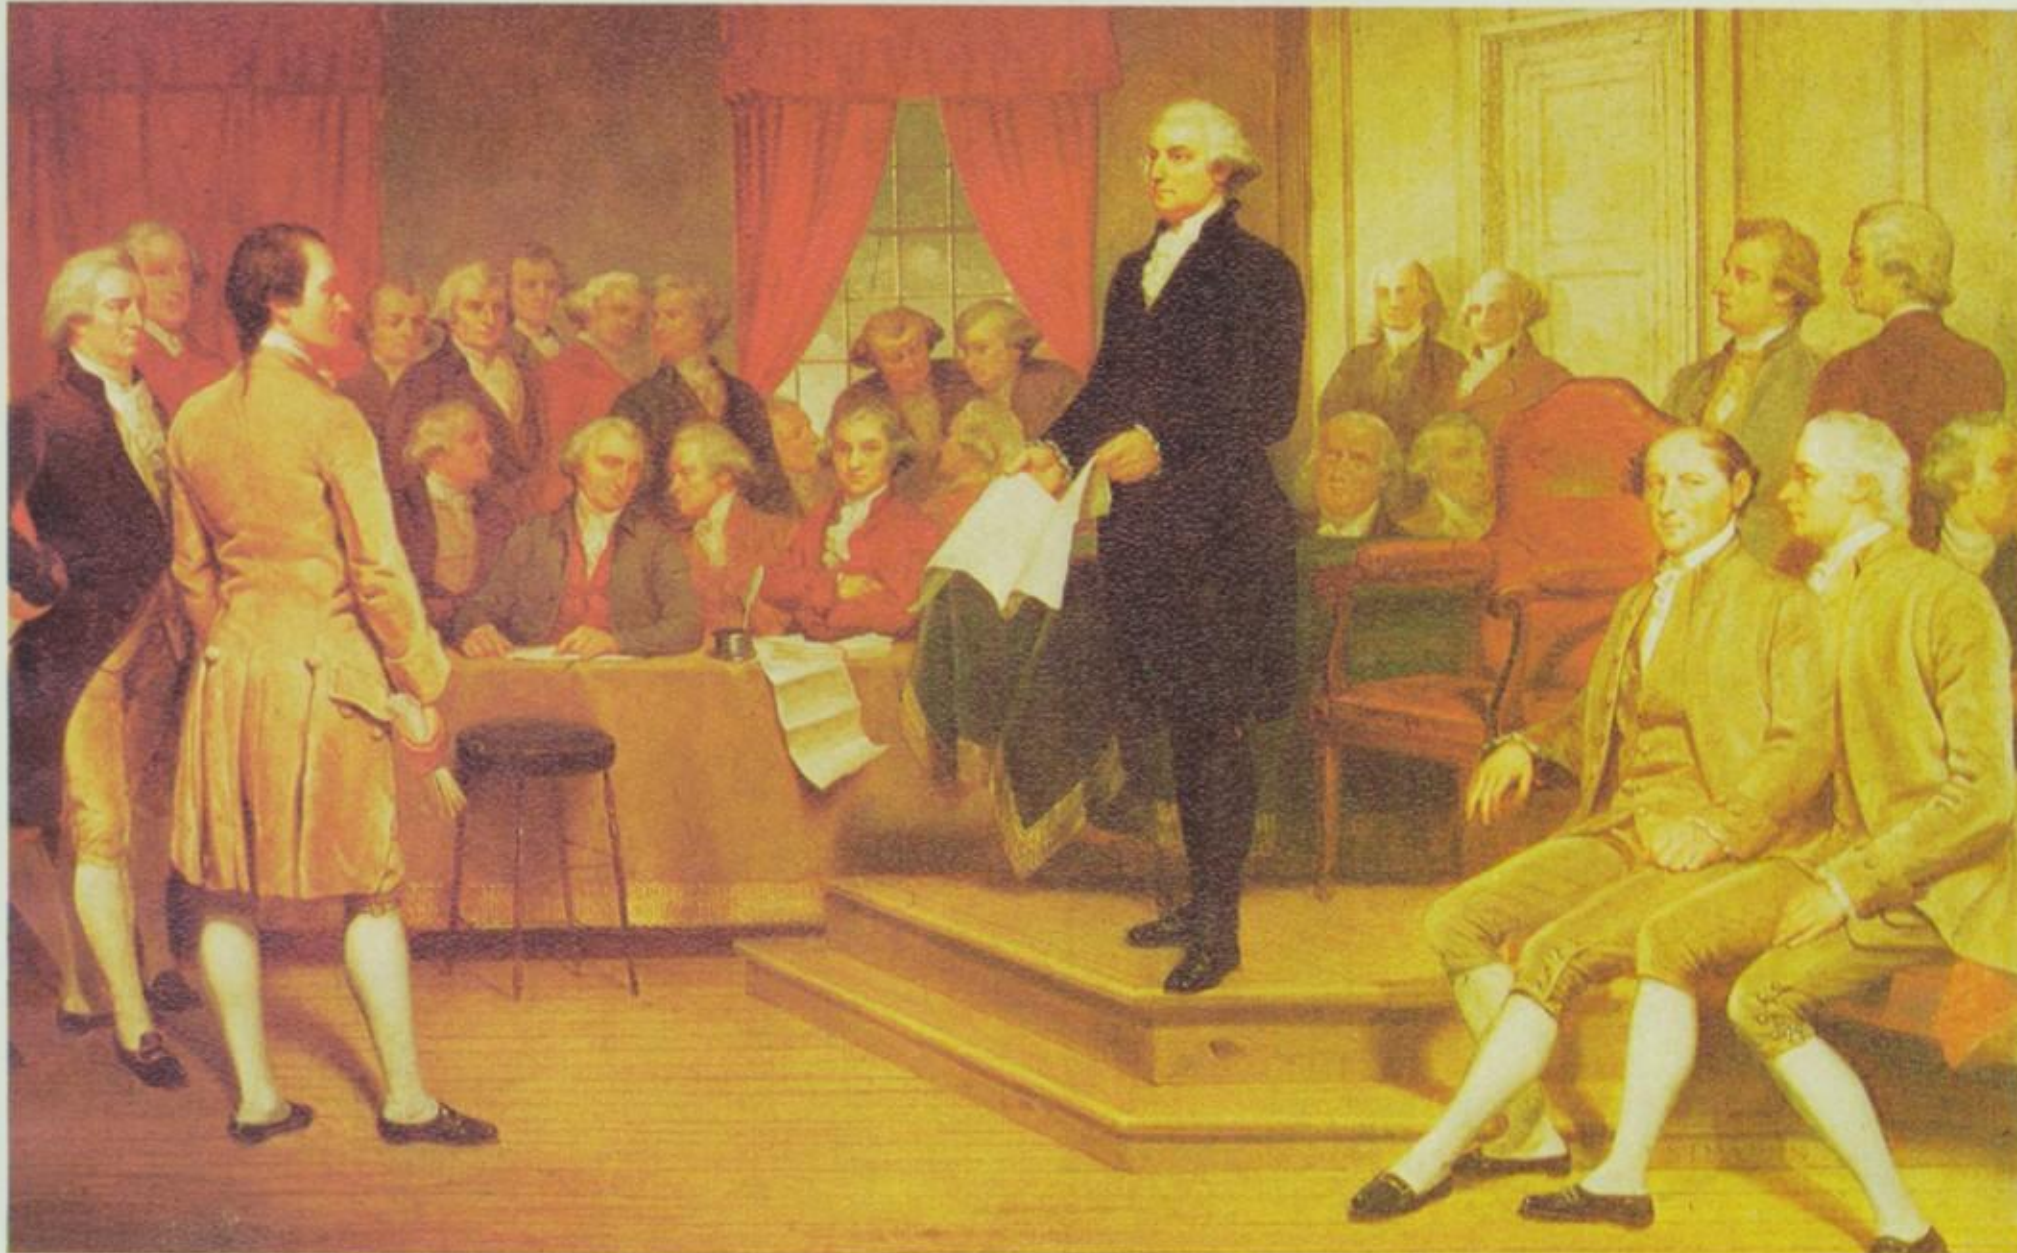

1/ Capt. John Parker uttered those words as the colonial militia under his command prepared to meet the British troops at Lexington. Those words and the painting—Spirit of '76—exemplify the dedication and determination of the American patriots in their fight for independence. The colonies had organized to express their grievances in an effort to resolve the differences within the framework of the Empire. Several of the colonial legislatures had instructed their delegates to the Continental Congress in Philadelphia to oppose any move toward independence. The movement for independence was gaining strength and following the publication of Thomas Paine's Common Sense, which argued for colonial sovereignty, a resolution was adopted and a committee of five appointed to draft a declaration of independence. 2/ General Washington, who had been appointed commander-in-chief of American forces by the Second Continental Congress, was a brilliant military strategist. It was his decision to take his Continentals across the Delaware River on Christmas night which resulted in the first major colonial victory. That victory at Trenton over Hessian mercenaries gave the ragged army renewed vigor. Supported chiefly through the printing of Continental currency, the colonial army also went through the personal fortunes of many American patriots—among them Washington, Jefferson, Richard Henry Lee and John Adams. These fortunes were donated to the cause of liberty—a cause supported by about one-third of the American population which was near 2,000,000. Another one-third remained loyal to the English crown and the remainder were apathetic. Despite many defeats, the colonies managed to keep an army in the field as a symbol of American resistance, to guarantee a negotiated rather than dictated peace.

“... Give Me Liberty or Give Me Death!”

Patrick Henry

3/ Following the victory at Yorktown, Washington refused the offer of his troops to become king and returned to Philadelphia to aid with the establishment of a permanent government for the new republic—a loose alliance of sovereign states held together by the Articles of Confederation. An envoy composed of Benjamin Franklin, John Adams and John Jay was sent to negotiate with the British. It was not until 1783 that the peace agreement, known as the Treaty of Paris, was signed, guaranteeing the sovereignty of the United States of America. The Articles of Confederation, despite many weaknesses, served to unify the states until 1787 when a special convention was held at Independence Hall in Philadelphia to revise them. The meeting was attended by fifty-five of the most-prominent men of the day. Twenty-nine of the delegates representing a majority of the states met on May 25 and decided to draft an entirely new constitution rather than amend the Articles of Confederation. The meeting then became known as the Constitutional Convention.

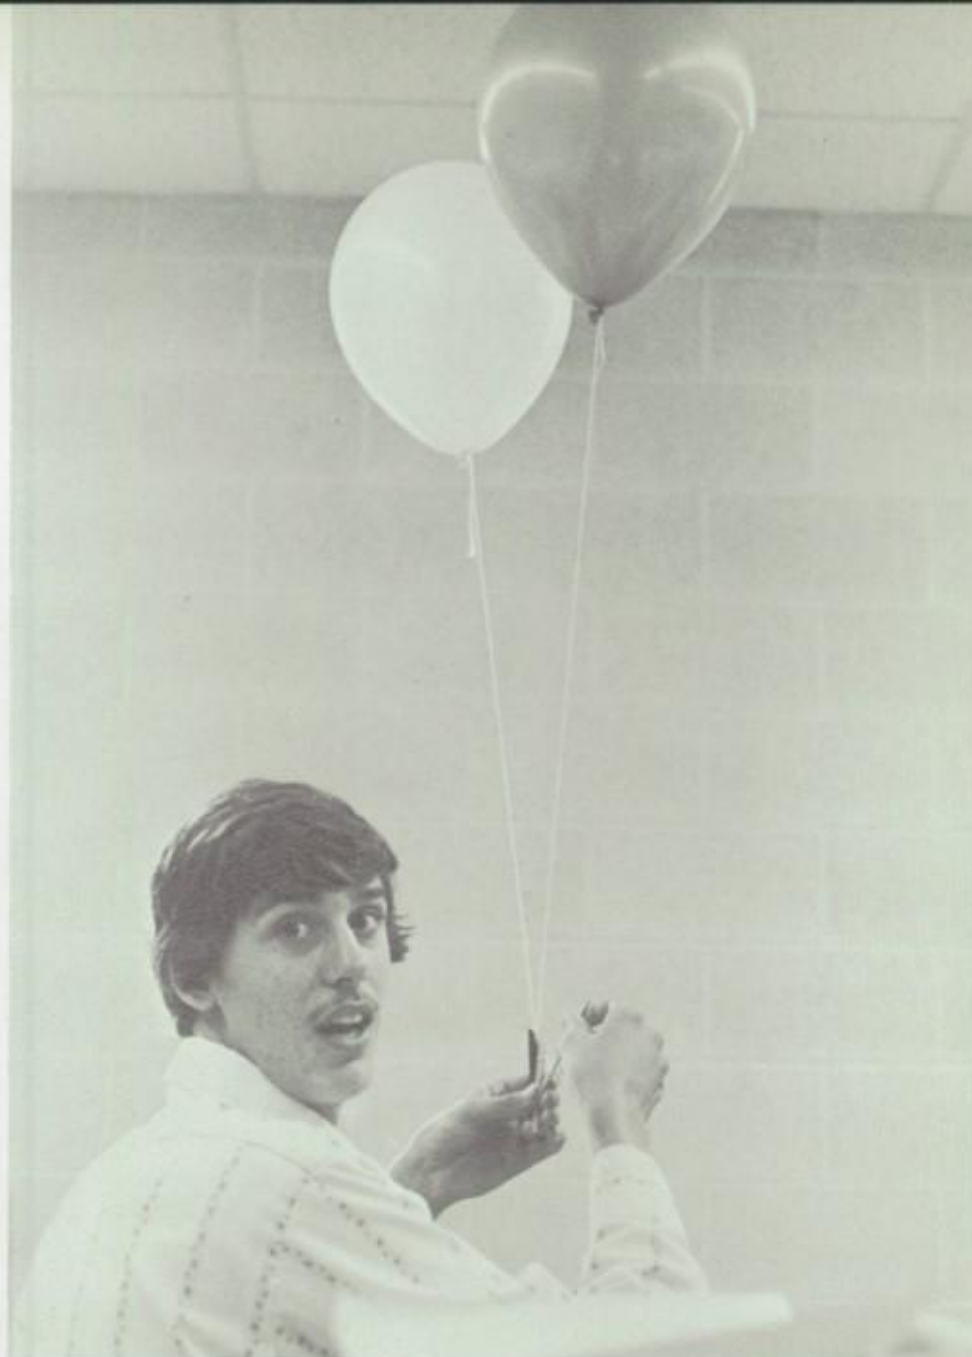

4/ The men who assembled for the Constitutional Convention were an illustrious group with nearly every delegate a person of prominence in his home state. A large majority favored a strong central government. After four months of debate, on September 17, 1787, the new constitution was completed. In a little more than four months, six states had ratified the new constitution. Despite the good beginning, the fight for ratification was bitter and it was not until September 13, 1788, that the necessary two-thirds majority of the states had approved the document and Congress could call for states to choose their electors and congressmen. Several of the states had ratified the constitution with the provision that it would be amended. Thus, as one of its first official acts under the new constitution, the Congress added the first ten amendments known as the Bill of Rights. Washington was unanimously elected President and a new nation was launched on a course of democracy.

Our Appearance,
Our Words,
Our Actions
Are never greater
Than ourselves.
For the soul
Is our house;
Our eyes its windows;
And our words
Its Messengers.

I've come to the conclusion
That one doesn't propose to Become a writer. One just Writes and if by chance
The spirit of the golden
Winged pencil should deign
To shed its lead upon thy
Soul with sweet inspiration
And impassioned verses, one
Is a success.

Girls Strive For Experience, Initiative And Togetherness.

Although this year's girls swim team had a losing season, they still accomplished much more than expected. First they established a background which will be used for future teams. Second they gained experience which can also serve to help future Lake Shore teams, and most of all this year's team had a spirit and unity that coach Richard Mallino called "lots of fun."

This year's Lake Shore Cross Country Team was quite unusual. There were five captains, all Seniors. There were no Juniors, seven Sophomores and two Freshmen. Despite the lack of Juniors the team continued to strive for higher goals, and more consistency. The team started training in early July. Left: Loosening up before a meet. Above: Team Captains (Left to Right): Jim Plunkard, Ron Pleva, Nick Aretakis, Kevin Ball, Randy Shank.

Being one of the best cross-country teams in Lake Shore's history, the 1975 team brought in a 3rd place at the Bi-County meet. With four wins and three losses the team accomplished what Coach Gary Shannon thought it would. Randy Shank was this year's most valuable player. He was also a State Qualifier for the second year in a row. Besides the five Seniors and seven Sophomore runners there were also two Freshmen on the team, one from each junior high. Below: Ron Pleva fighting off a South Lake contender.

The Girls' J.V. Basketball team had a very promising season. They brought the hope of being the future Bi-County champs to the team. These girls are truly dedicated and just need more confidence and experience. Top Right: Lake Shore's Spirit In Action!

Bi-County Co-Champions

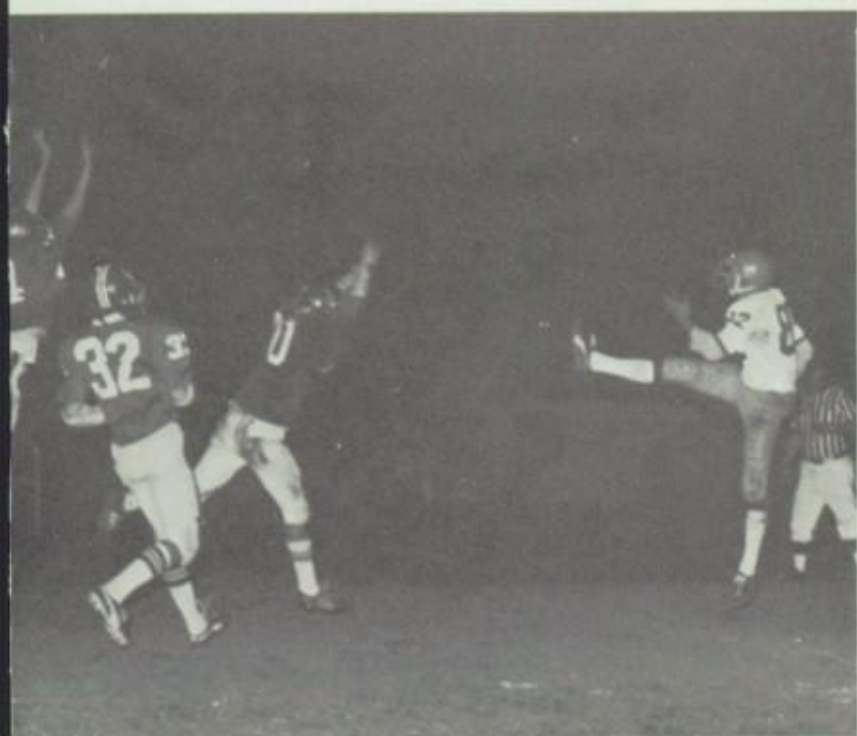

Before the 1975 football season was underway there were a lot of questions concerning the team. A year ago only 5 underclassmen filled into starting positions. This lack of experience presented a problem but after a few games the team matured quickly. The offense, led by Len Mitchell and Don Young, was very productive and the defense was as good as any ever at Lake Shore.

Another Excellent Year

This year's team followed it's annual tradition. Lake Shore tied Grosse Pointe for the Bi-County title. This year's team was led by Bob Thomas (co-most valuable player) and Len Mitchell (first Team All Bi-County). The team finished with a record of 18 wins and 2 losses. Their overall record was 19 wins and 3 losses. Above: Lake Shore up with a jump shot on route to victory over Grosse Pointe North.

Lake Shore's Spirit Shines Through

Many disappointments but also many cheers.

The 1975-76 varsity cheerleaders were a different bunch than most. At first all but one quit while cheering during football or shortly after; but with the help of other fine dedicated young ladies cheers were always heard. Debbie Colasanti led the cheers throughout the year and really was a credit to Lake Shore High School. The other girls that provided inspiration for our boys' teams were Vicki Deprez (senior), Roseanne Evola (junior), Robin Willette (senior), and Karen Mastrianni (junior). Upper right: Robin Willette, Vicki Deprez, Debbie Colasanti, Roseanne Evola and sitting down is Karen Mastrianni.

A Bright Future For A Bright Team

Lake Shore's junior varsity football team did an excellent job this year. They went undefeated through nine games which is good in itself. But how they did it was "super". They tore apart opposing teams with great ease and with more experience, work, and effort, Lake Shore should have a few championships in the future. Bottom Left: Captains from left to right: Sam Huber, Buzz Morehead, Greg Damm, Ross Rocheleau. Bottom Right: Terry Peabody and Ross Rouchelleau look on as a play comes to an end.

Watch Out Varsity, J.V. Goes Undeclared

This years young crop of sophomore basketball players was full of talent. They were undefeated for the entire season and smothered their opponents easily. You can be sure Mr. Rumler was smiling because he will receive this bundle of talent next year. Who knows what will happen to basketball at Lakeshore in the future but things are looking up.

Although this year's tennis team did not have a winning season, it did finish with a respectable seven wins and nine losses. Coach Lewis felt that this year's tennis team was the best he had seen in his three years of coaching. With players like John Koscielniak (most valuable), Ken Hamby, Dave Redlawski and Duane Kortsha (most improved) returning, the team promises to be even better next year.

This year's Lake Shore hockey team had a terrific start. They won their first 7 games and seemed to be in control. The team lost "A Little Steam" at midseason but finished with a respectable record. They were 11-8-1 in the League and 15-10-1 overall. The team was led by captain Blake Hanrahan who was MVP and best defense man. At left: Coach Wayne Koseck and Assistant Coach Larry Weirs.

Next year the team promises to be even better. They will only lose 4 players with Jim Watson and Mitch Hinz returning as captains. This team has a bright future and with a lot of hard work and dedication they could become champions. Middle Left: Camera shy players refuse to have their pictures taken.

Hockey Cheerleading, It's A Lot Of Fun

Hockey Cheerleaders at Lake Shore have always been cheerful and bright, and this year was no exception. They were not only willing to cheer for the hockey team but most of these girls helped out the varsity cheerleaders when they were in need of it.

These girls were very active in many other things around school and out of school, most of them held jobs and still managed to remain active. Vicki Deprez was homecoming queen, and Sheila Wieske was a finalist for Miss St. Clair Shores; so you can see that they were a charming bunch.

Varsity Baseball

This year's baseball team had a fair season under coach Garlinski. They finished with a 6-8 record in the league and 11-12 overall. In post season play the team won four straight and the district title. Upper right: Catcher Vince Billski leaves the field. Middle left: Bob Thomas looks up to catch a fly ball. Lower left: Rick Beck fields a grounder.

Girls' Baseball

This year's team placed 7th in the final league standings. However, because of the loss of 3 seniors this year, next year's team will be more experienced.

This years most valuable player was Shirley Taylor. All Bi-County 2nd Team were Vanessa Tarsenco, and Lori Malak. Honorable mention: Sue Fischer, Ann Fischer, Sue Paye, Shirley Taylor, Kathy Grenier, Rose Johns, and Nina Spatafora.

In this era of world wars, in this atomic age, values have changed. We have learned that we are guests of existence, travelers between two stations. We must discover security within ourselves.

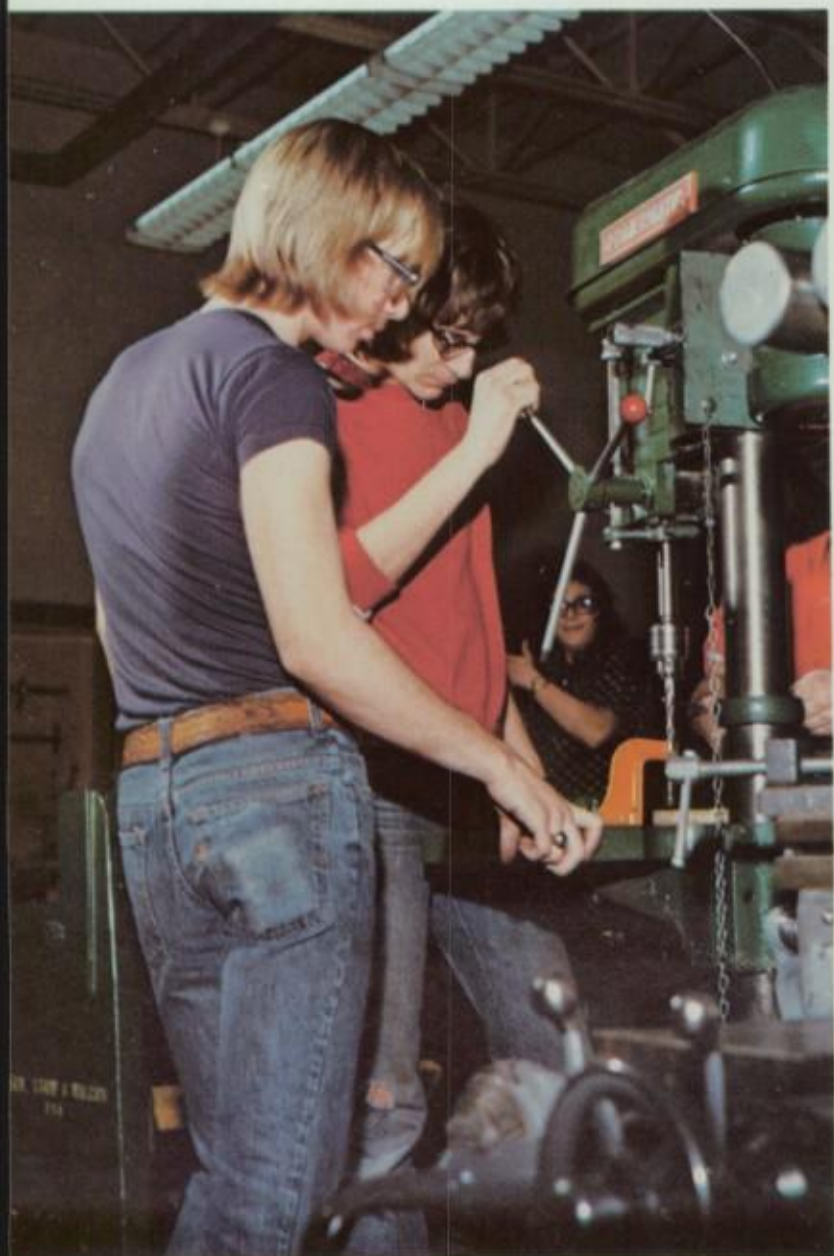

Boris Pasternak

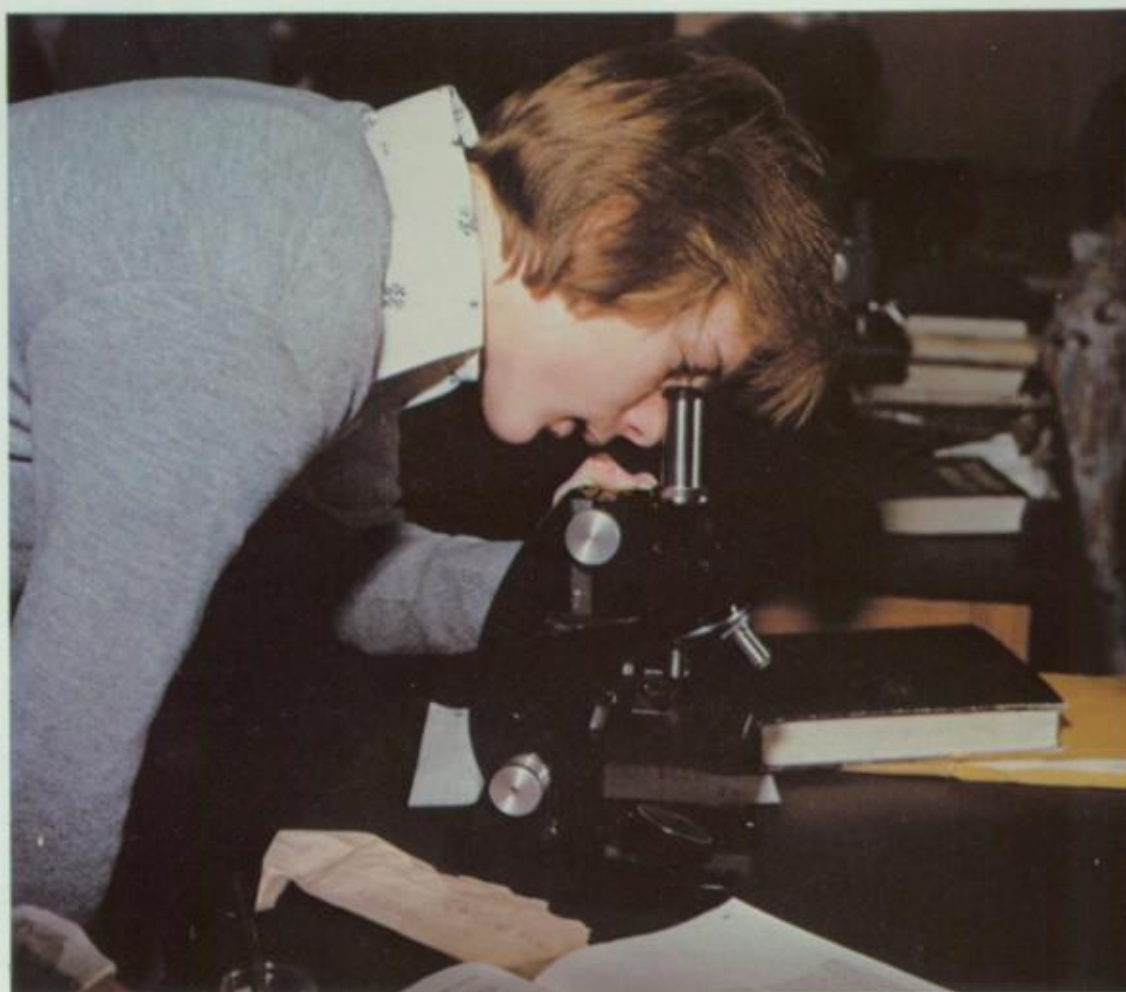

Friendship needs no words - it is a loneliness relieved of the anguish of loneliness.

Dag Hammarskjöld

Very little is needed to make a happy life. It is all within yourself, in your way of thinking.

Marcus Aurelius

Humanity is a brilliant river, singing its way and carrying with it the mountain's secrets into the heart of the sea.

To be curious is to be alive;
To sense the wonder
In things, great and small . . .

Katherine Edelman

We may change with the seasons;
But the seasons will never change us.

The sunshine of life is made up of very little beams that are bright all the time.

Aiken

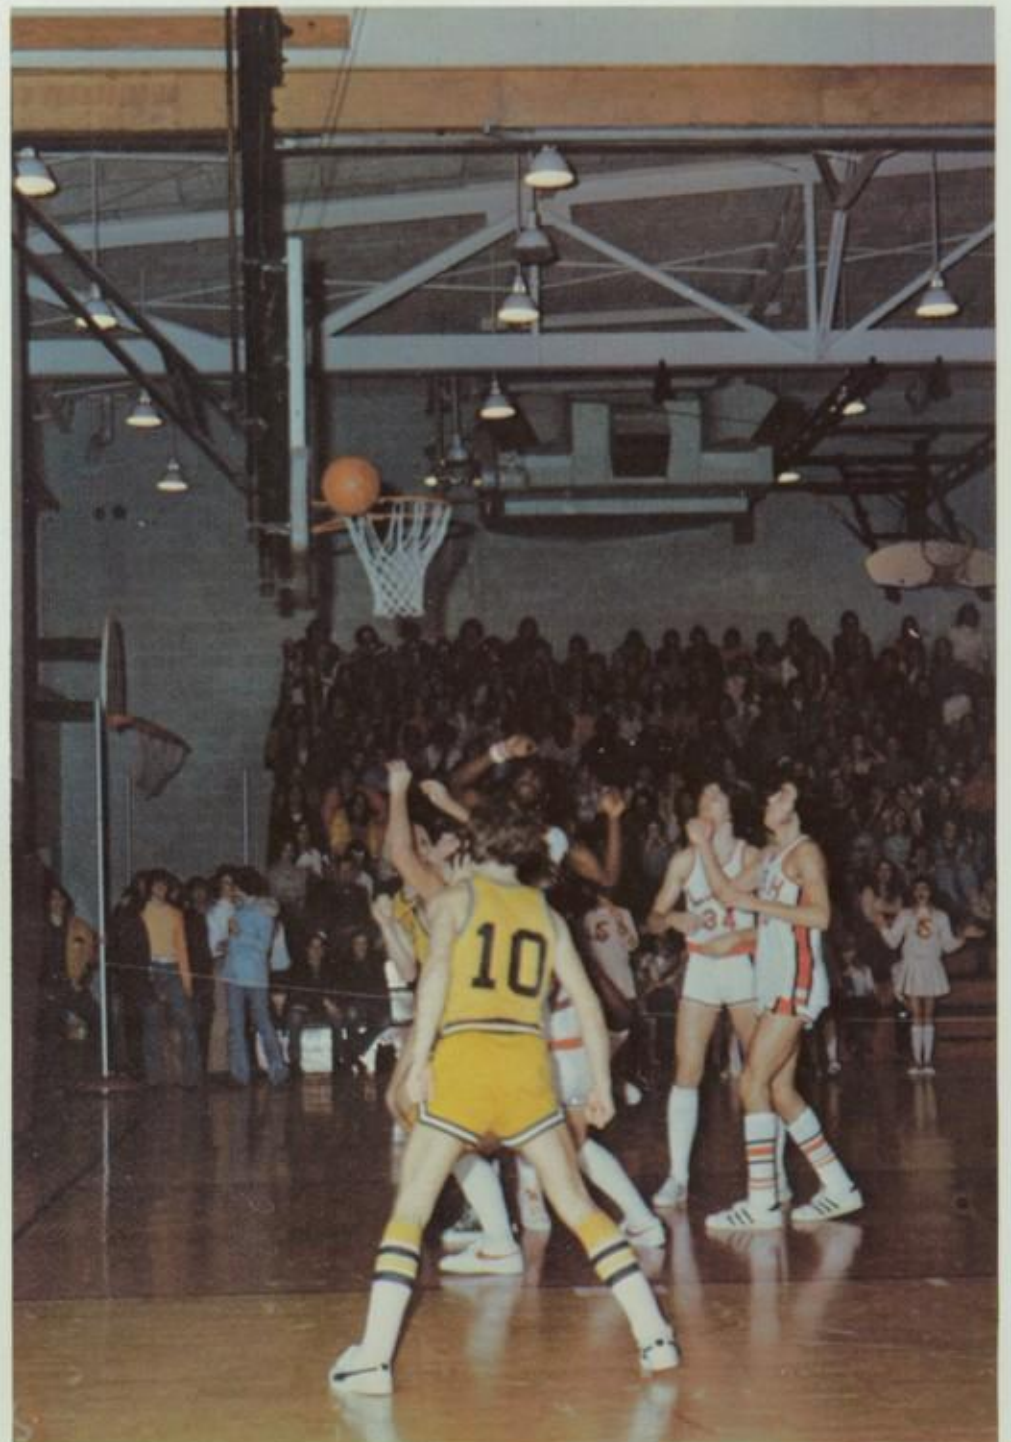

It is not until some time after we have left it that a place where we have stayed for a while takes form in our memory and becomes an unchanging image. As long as we are there and able to see it all, we perceive essentials and incidentals with just about equal intensity. Later on, our secondary impressions fade and our memory retains only what is worth retaining; if this were not so, how could we look back over so much as a single year of our life without a sickening, terrifying confusion?

Hermann Hesse

You must learn day by day, year by year, to broaden your horizon. The more things you love, the more you're interested in, the more you enjoy, the more you are indignant about- the more you have left when anything happens.

Ethel Barrymore

I am not afraid of tomorrow, for
I have seen yesterday and I love today.

William Allen White

We do not remember days,
We remember moments.
Cesare Pavese

Friends are flowers in the garden of life.

Mary Dawson Hughes

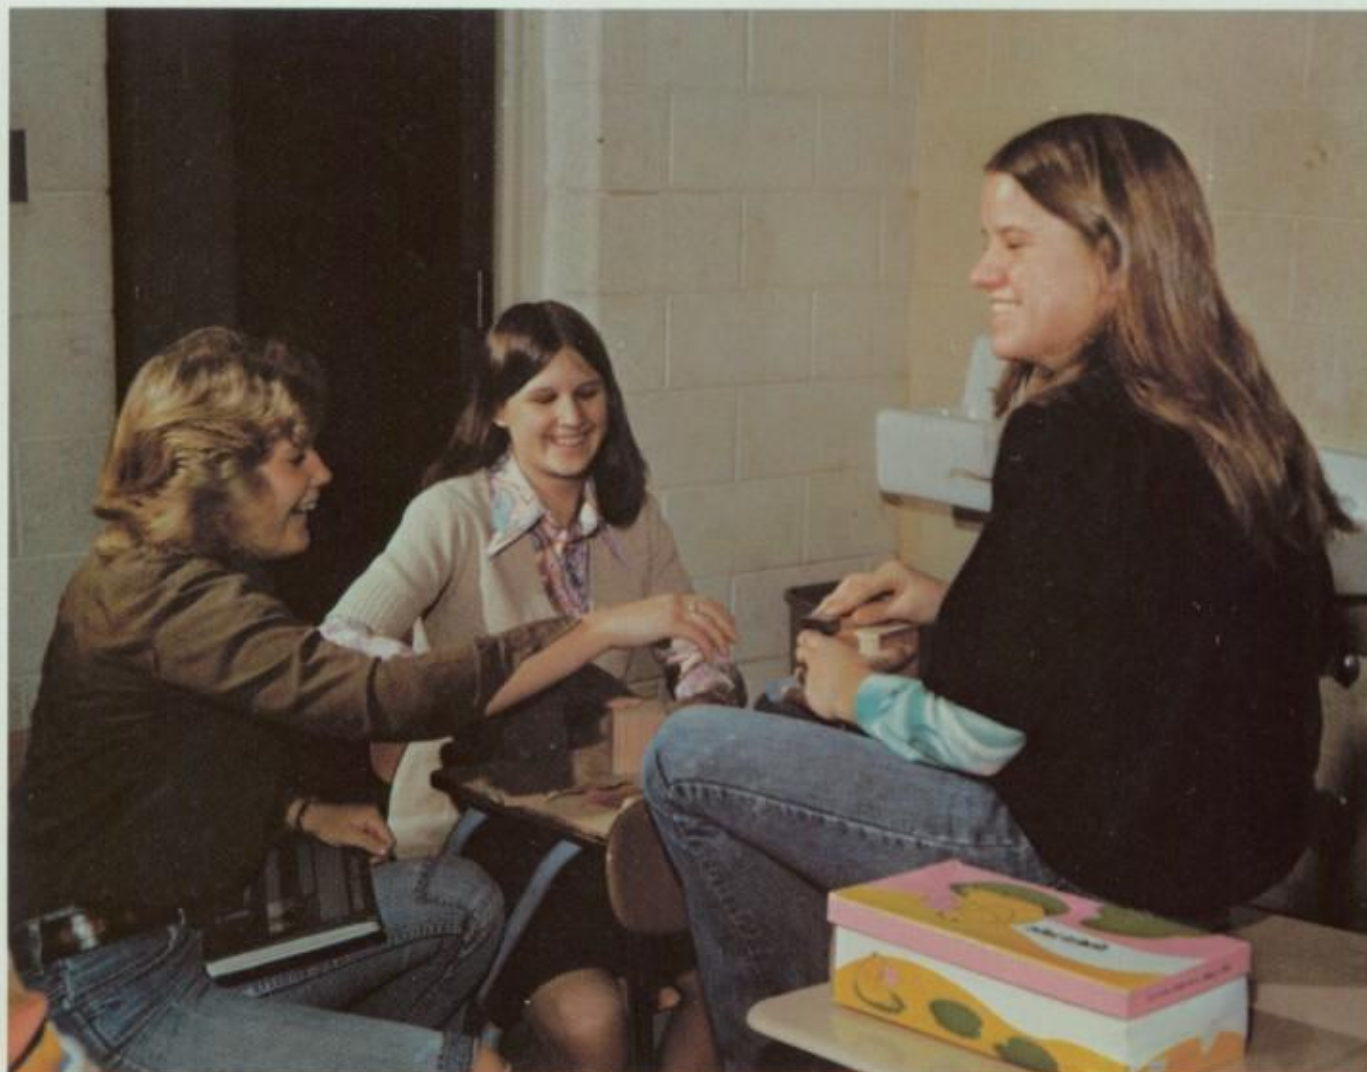

To hold our tongues when everyone is gossiping,
To smile without hostility at people and institutions,
To compensate for the shortage of love in the world with more love in small private matters,
To be more faithful in our work,
To show greater patience,
To forgo the cheap revenge obtainable from mockery and criticism:
All these are things we can do.

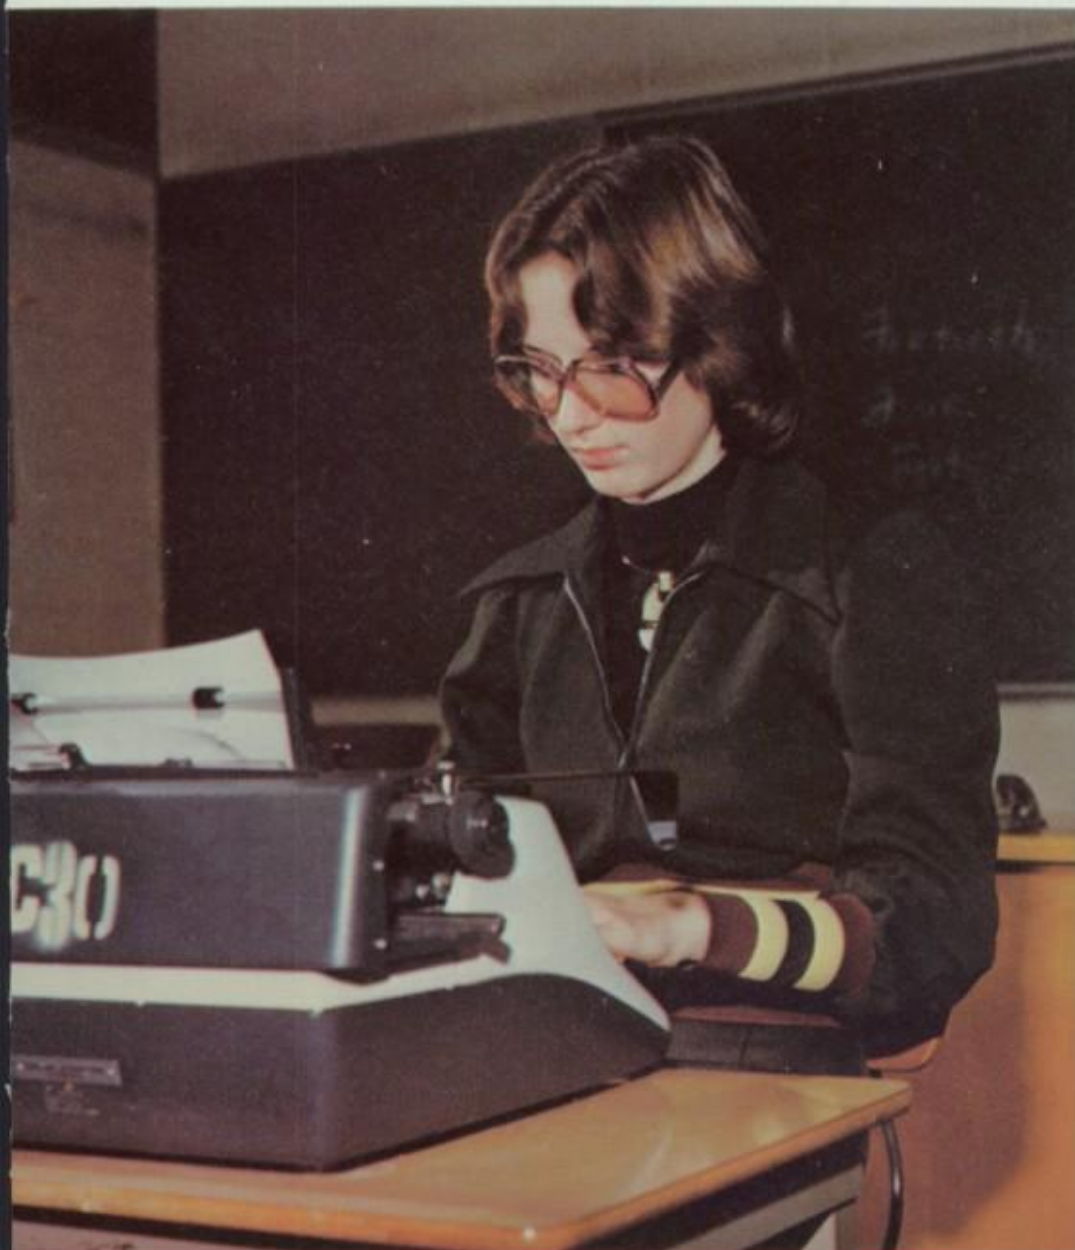

Hermann Hesse

The magic within the appearance of things changes according to the emotions, and thus we see magic and beauty in them, while the magic and beauty are really in ourselves.

Kahil Gibran

Far From The Crowd

Far from the crowd I will pick my way,
 apart from society,
For I must pause and rest a while
 And find a trail for me.

So push and climb on your noisy way;
 I choose a different goal,
To nestle in my quiet place,
 And grow within my soul.

A friendship is gone and in its place
There's a memory of sadness that can't be erased.
It's sad because it was
and now it is not.
The happy times shared by the friend are forgotten.
And now it is lonely
knowing one thing for sure,
If the friend might still be if only I had given more.

Angie Rosiek

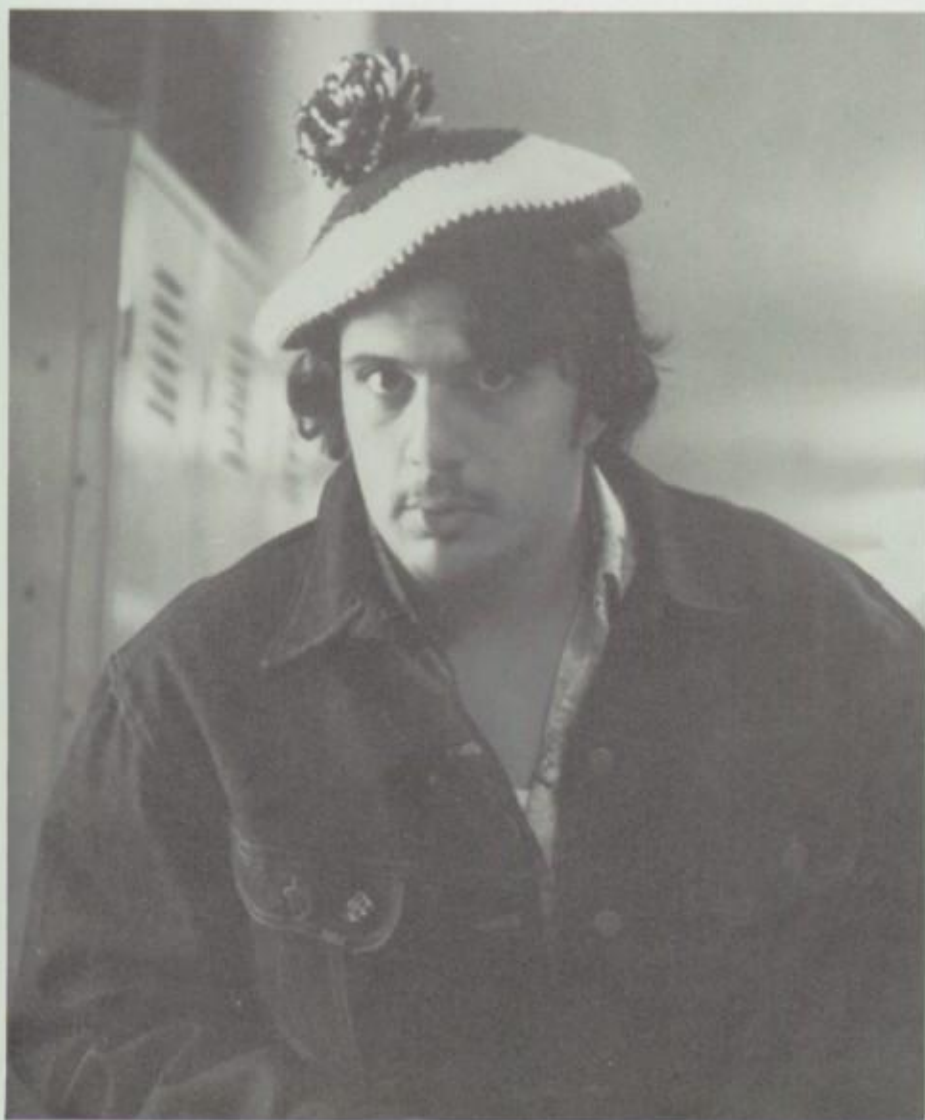

... Second in name only.

How sad it is to be alone
When no one else is there.
You feel so left out
That words can not compare.

It's an awful feeling,
That gets you deep inside
Which makes you feel so empty
That you have no place to hide.

for all his help.

I run my eyes along the contour
of your face.
There is softness in hidden places
That only my sense of sight will ever know.
When unable to speak
We communicate with looks and find each others thoughts.

Life was meant to be lived,
and curiosity must be kept alive.
One must never,
for whatever reason,
turn his back on life.

SUCCESS

There's no thrill in easy sailing,
When the skies are clear and blue,
There's no joy in merely doing things
Which anyone can do.

But there is some satisfaction,
Which is mighty sweet to take,
When you reach the destination,
Which you thought you couldn't make.

A RECIPE FOR A TEACHER

Select a young and pleasing personality, trim off all mannerisms of voice, dress, or deportment. Pour over it a mixture of equal parts of the wisdom of Solomon, the courage of young Daniel, the strength of Samson, and the patience of Job.

Season with the salt of experience, the pepper of animation, the oil of sympathy, and a dash of humor.

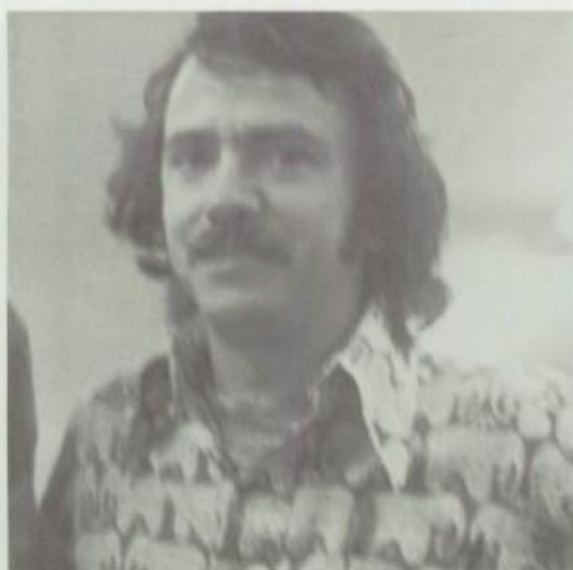

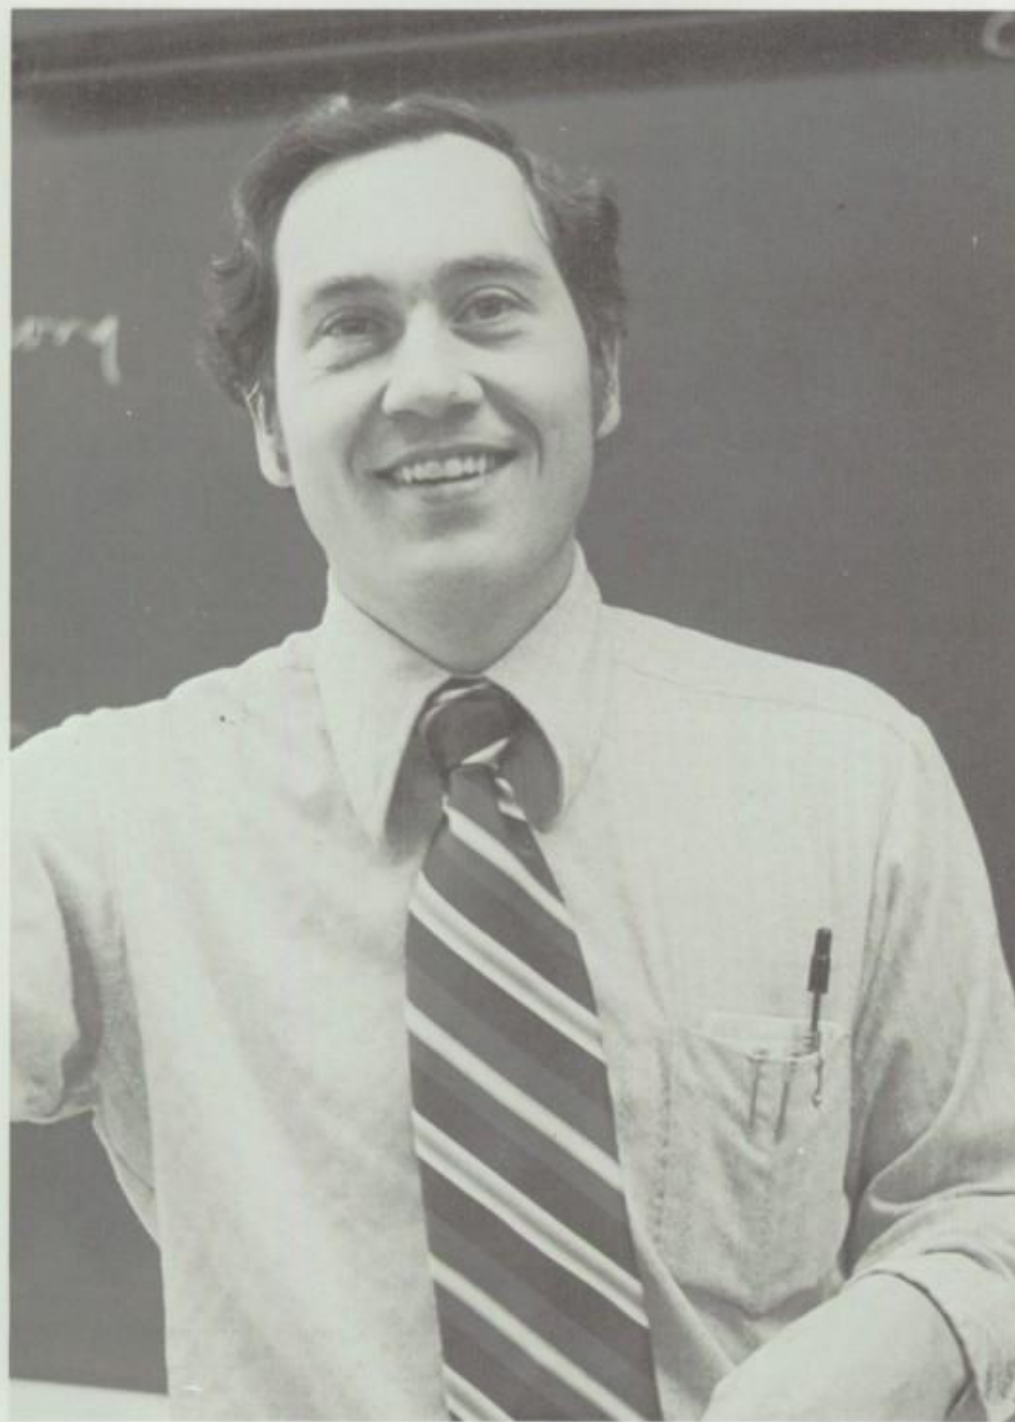

Stew for about four years in a hot classroom, testing occasionally with the fork of criticism thrust in by a principal or superintendent.

When done to a turn, garnish with a salary and serve hot to the community.

Lake Shore High School (in the year 1986)

My, my, the school has changed. The time has gone by so fast. The class of '76 ten year reunion, seems like I just graduated. Is that Mr. Olzem I see over there? He sure looks different. What?? Joined Hare Krishna you say? Wow. The bald head I can dig, but the pierced nose is going to take some getting used to.

I was talking to Mr. Fyn earlier tonight. He sure has changed. I've never seen him in Levi's before. I was also shocked to see the full head of curly black hair. Did you by chance read his T-shirt? "David Bowie is my Rock-n-Roll Queen." Oh well, he looks happy.

I haven't seen Mrs. Barber around at all tonight. You're kidding! Fired? Growing illegal plants?? No wonder she always locked the greenhouse.

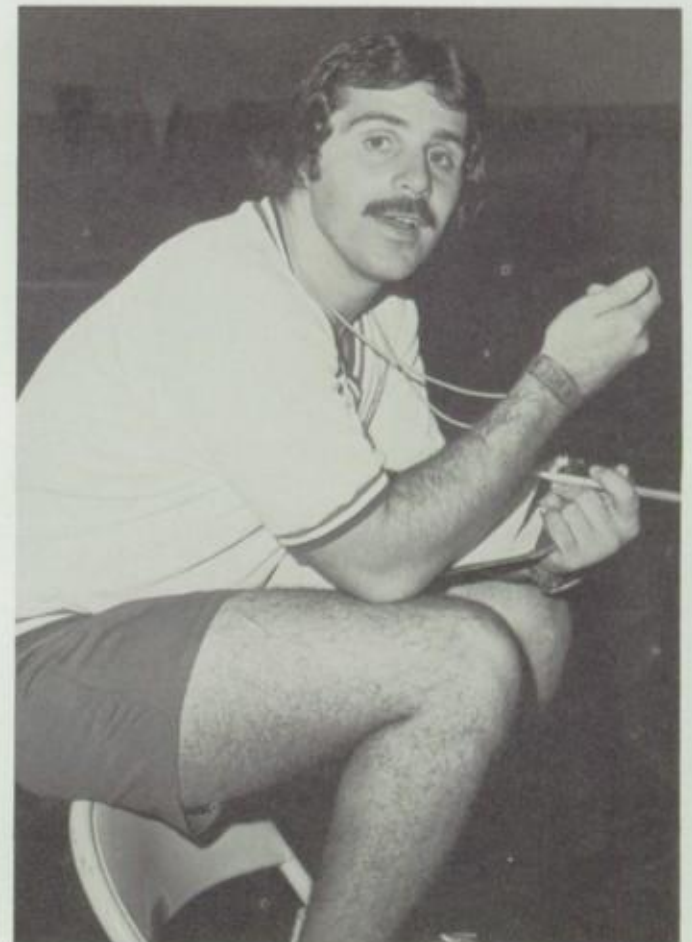

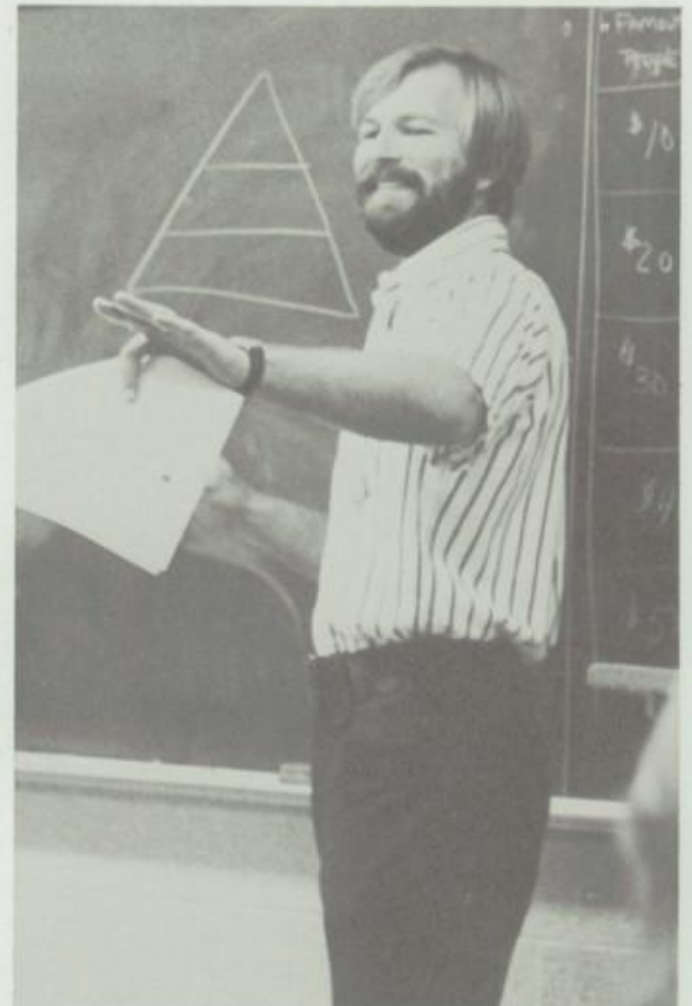

Oh, there's Miss Cleary. I hardly recongized her with that red afro.

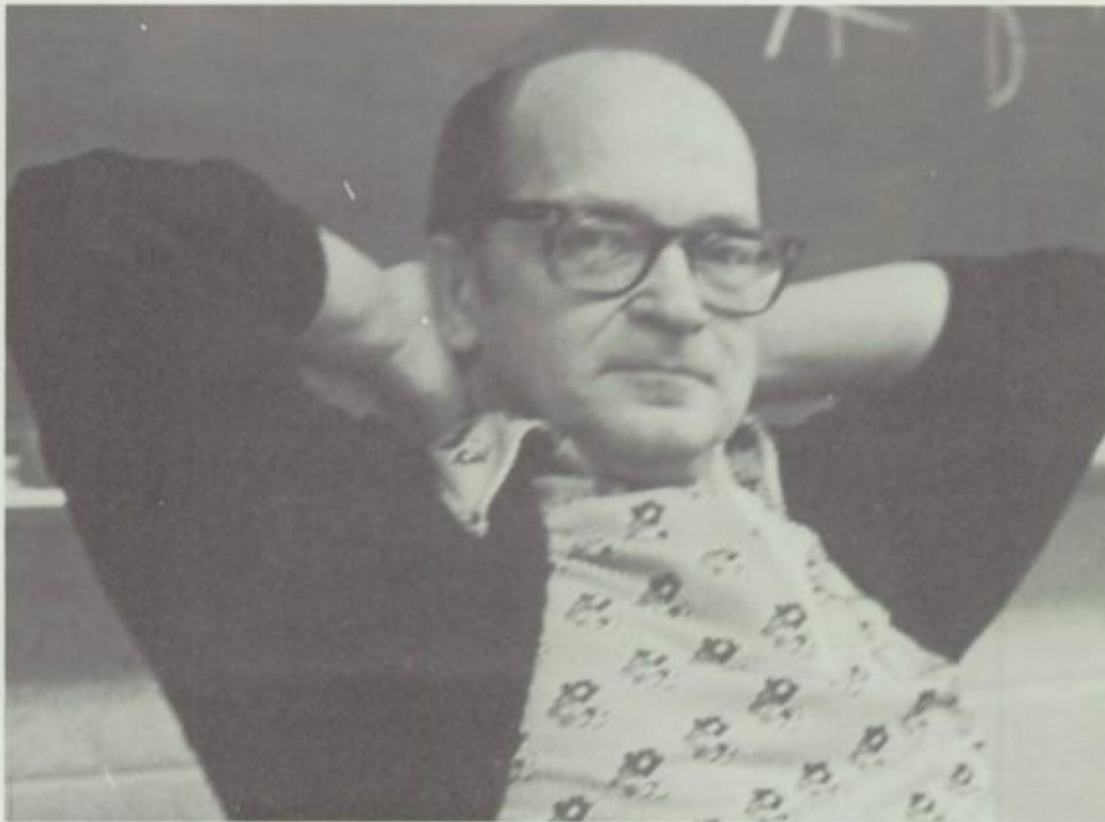

Speaking of red hair, anyone see Niggemann around anywhere? And who are all those red haired little kids? Oh, I get it. All his? No, I haven't heard. The Niggemann Family? Cute. No, I haven't bought any of their records.

Mrs. Harris?? Oh what a shame. Paper Mache'd herself to death you say? I would have never guessed. She always seemed so happy.

And last but not least, good old Mr. Levenson. It's a shame he couldn't make it tonight. New York again? Dedication Ceremony? For what? Well I'll be. A statue of Levenson huh? Right next to the Statue of Liberty commemorating his 100th visit to New York with Lake Shore High School.

WHAT I CALL A FRIEND

One whose grip is a little tighter
 One whose smile is a little brighter,
 One whose deeds are a little whiter,
 That's what I call a friend.
 One who'll lend as quick as borrow,
 One who's the same today as tomorrow,
 One who'll share your joy and sorrow,
 That's what I call a friend.
 One whose thoughts are a little cleaner,
 One whose mind is a little keener,
 One who avoids those things that are meaner,
 That's what I call a friend.
 One who's been fine when life seem rotten,
 One whose ideals you've not forgotten,
 One who has given you more than he's gotten,
 That's what I call a friend.

Looking back, students said:

The values I got from my family, the ones that I've kept, are good. I've pared them and peeled them to fit my own style, but there's a good continuity here. I mean it's a new generation, but there's a lot from my old generation that can't be minimized.

I haven't made three year's progress in three year's time in certain areas of knowledge. I have developed very well certain abilities, really pushed them almost to the limit of their development at this stage of my life. Yet there are things which I need to have as a background. I need things that would give me more perspective to help me analyze what it is I've done and what it is I need to do.

But I feel much more secure in myself, and I am much more willing at this point to project my alternatives onto people, and to push them very hard. I am more willing now to have people follow my direction and to take responsibility for it. That means the possibility of failure and getting people angry at you and all kinds of things.

For the first time, I have not felt the need to have something certain that I could go into, that I could stay with. Now I welcome the uncertainty. I welcome the choice. I welcome the thinking that that forces. That's one of the things that's really keeping me going now.

Looking back, we say:

It's been great talking with you; we enjoyed listening.

All the world's a stage
 And all the men and women merely players
 They have their exits and their entrances
 And one man in his time plays many parts.

Here's To Our Honor

We Will Not Be Beat

To the class of '76 and the faculty of L.S.

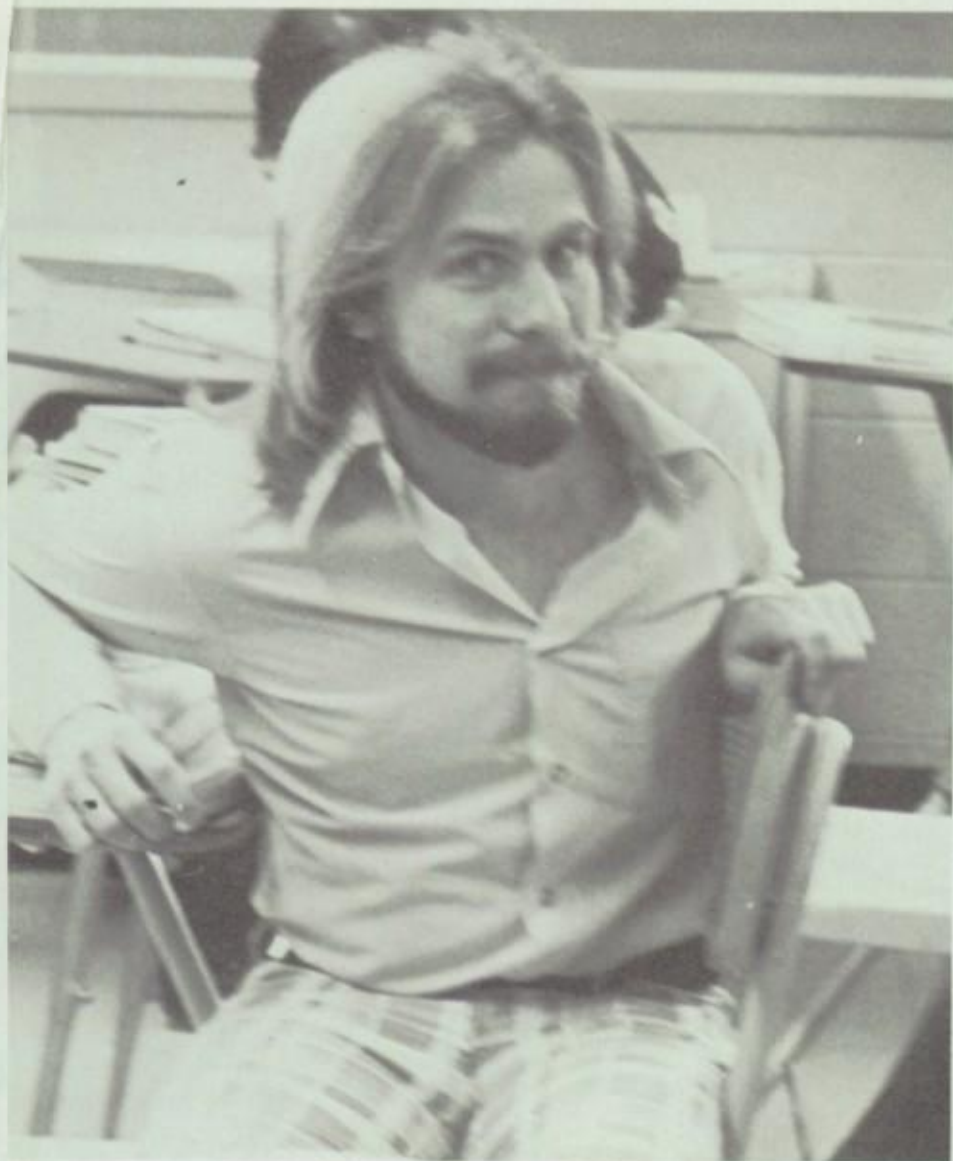

For three years we've lived part of our lives at Lake Shore, to try to prepare for our future. The three years went fast, as we shared our answers on tests, our dreams, our love, and our friendship.

After spending our time at Lake Shore, we deserve to have the best of luck in the future. Ralph, Daine, Mike, 3rd hour trig and to the rest of the 700, good luck in your future, whether it be at M.S.U. or fixing T.V.'s.

See you in the future,

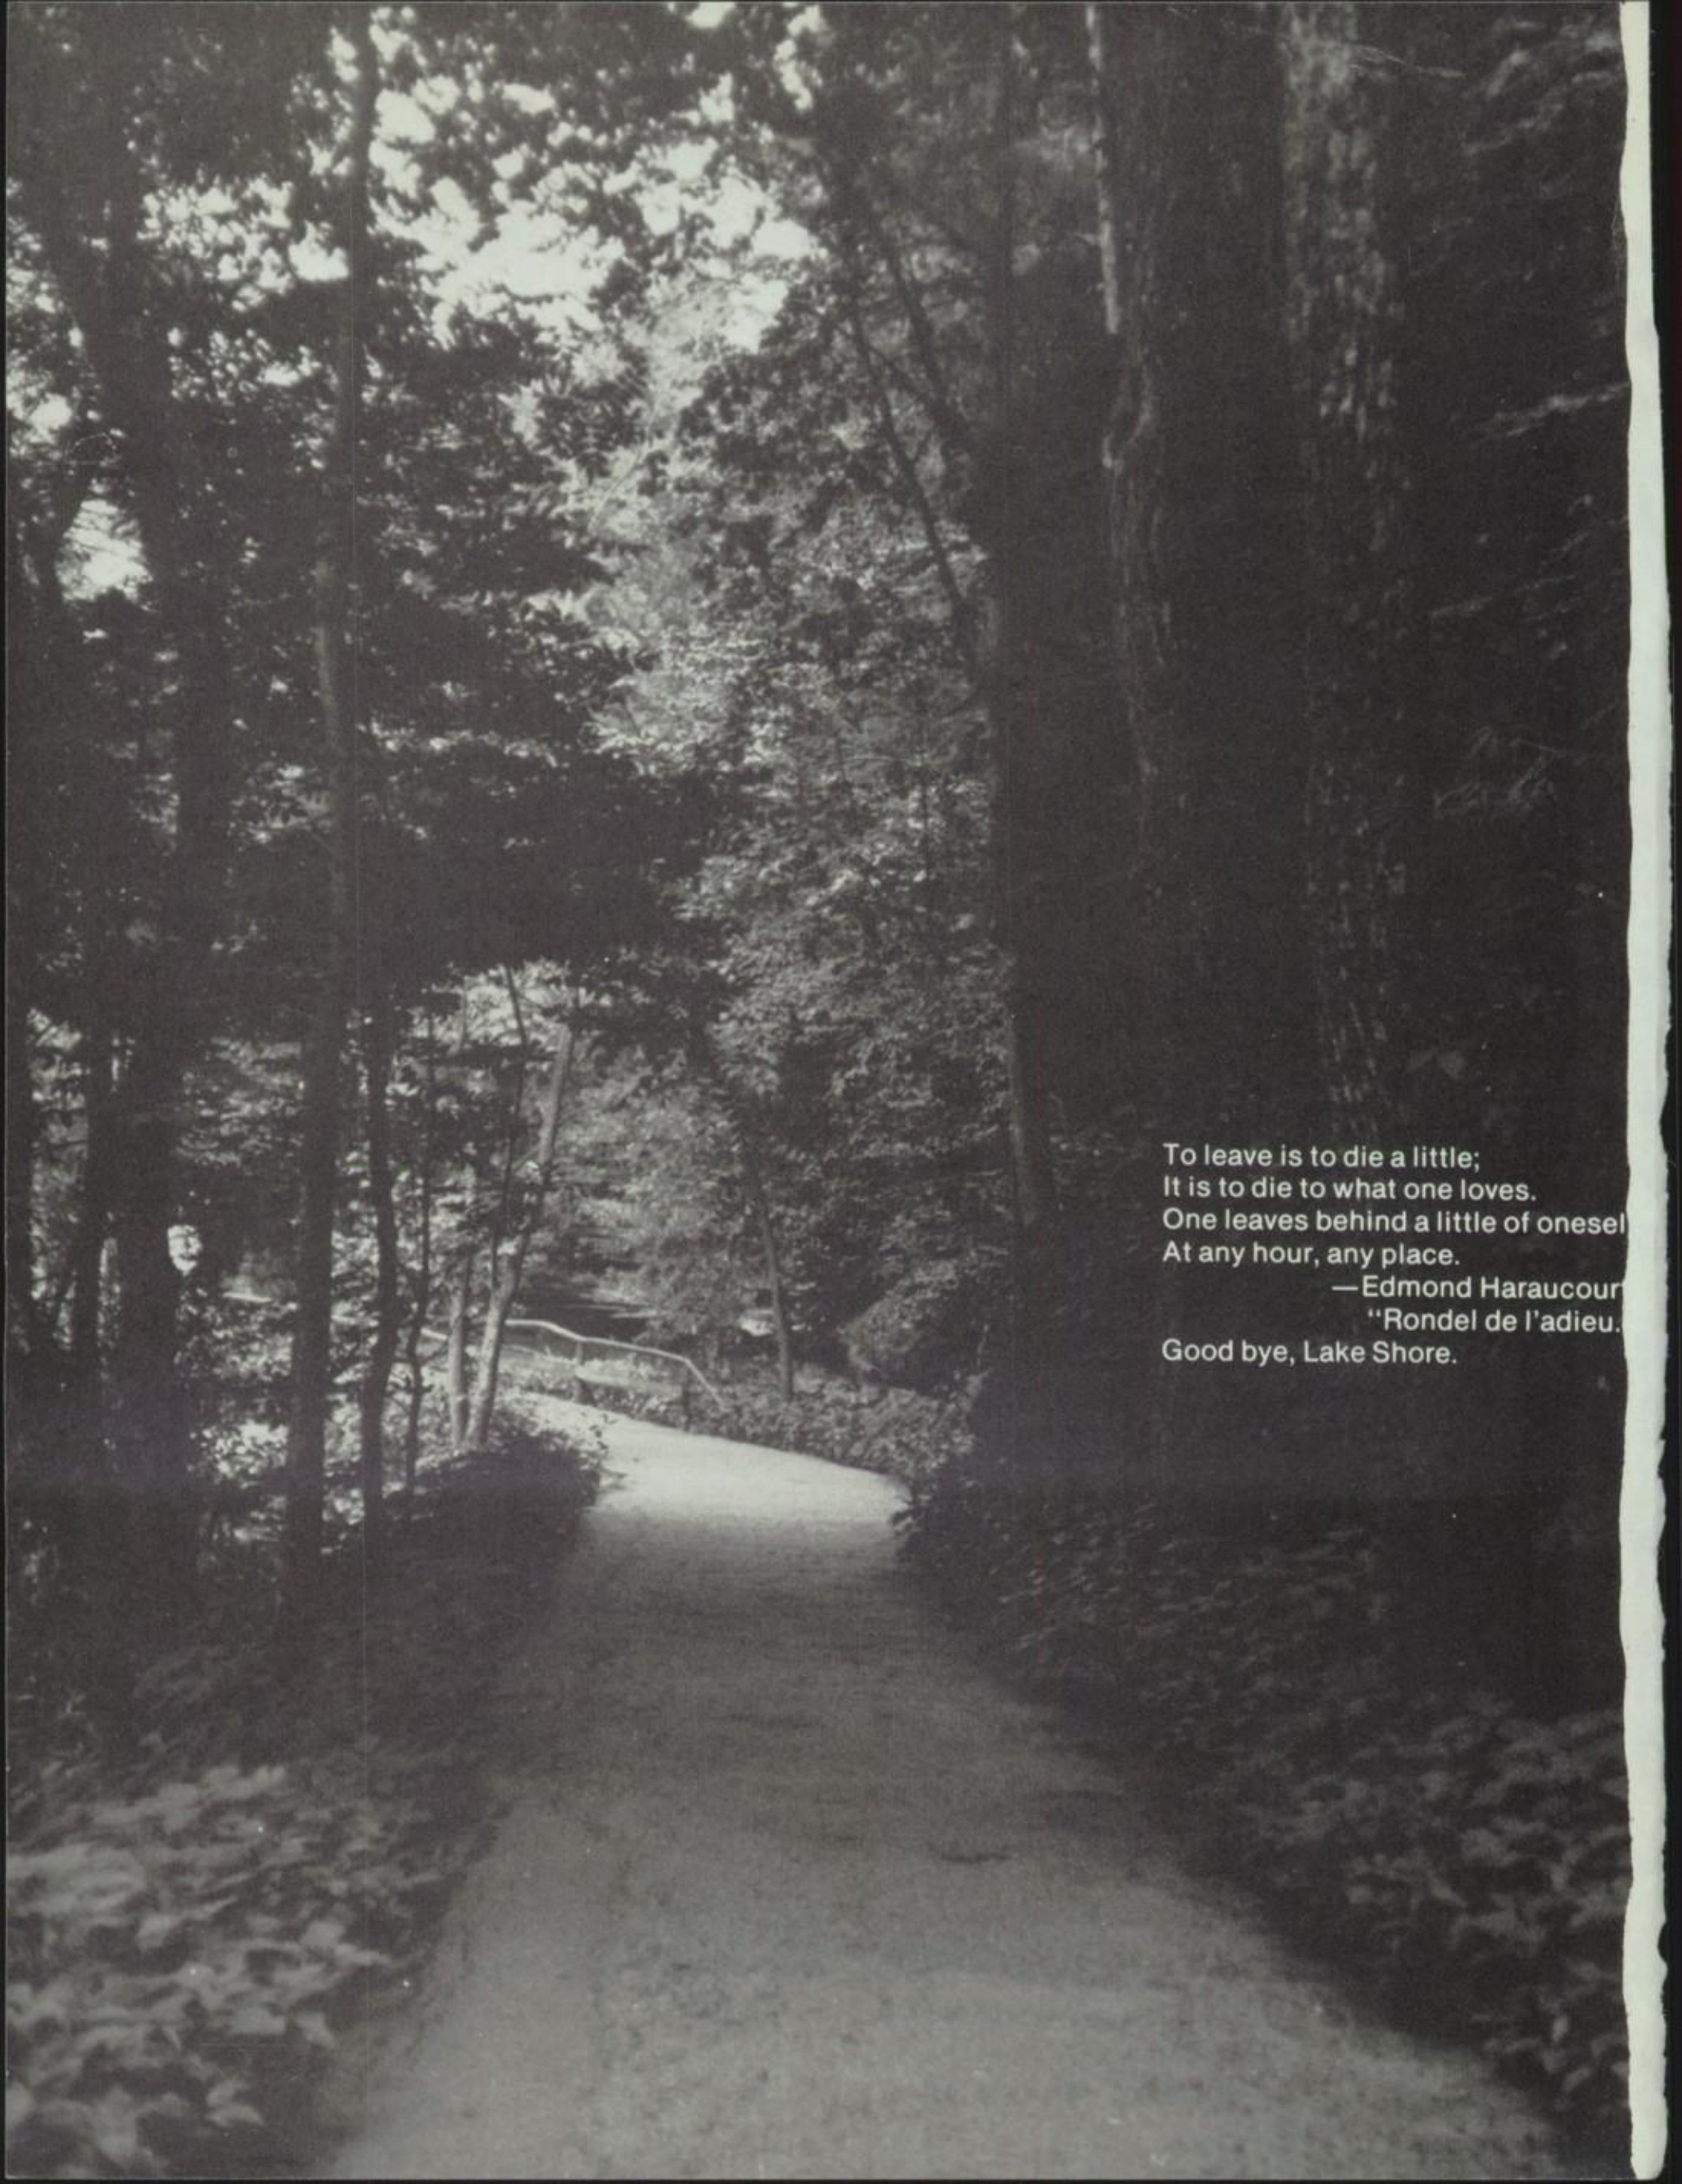

Dennis J. Howe

Step by step, an individual must achieve his goal in life, since nothing worthwhile is gained easily or quickly. A high school education is but one more step to better living. Within this book are recorded our efforts, activities, and achievements during our climb to gain an education.

To leave is to die a little;
It is to die to what one loves.
One leaves behind a little of oneself
At any hour, any place.

—Edmond Haraucourt

Good bye, Lake Shore.
